🏠 Week 5 Newsletter – Circus Week at Shorashim SK 🏠

Can you believe it's already Week 5?! Time is flying by because we're having so much fun! This week was an absolute circus — in the best way possible!

We kicked things off on Monday by welcoming some new friends into our group and playing fun icebreaker games to get to know one another. In art, we made silly clown puppets using paper plates and had a blast designing our own unique clowns. We also created our own kinetic sand—it was messy, squishy, and totally awesome! The highlight of the day? An incredible Magic Show that left us all amazed. From a Star Wars wand inside a balloon to one of our friends floating in the air—our jaws were on the floor!

Tuesday was Twin Day, and it was so fun to see all the matching outfits! We made giant clown ties, jumped around in the bouncy castles, and even made clown hats with yummy food art. The day ended with an exciting carnival run by Otzros from carnival games, popcorn, cotton candy and slushies we had a BLAST!!!

On Wednesday, we started our morning cooling off at the splash pad and then got creative in woodworking, followed by making our very own Oobleck juggling balls—they were so fun!

Thursday was another adventure as we headed to Earl Bales Park for some splash pad and playground fun. Later, we had a blast baking clown cookies with Abby, made goofy clown hats in art, whipped up some circus-themed slime, and cooled down with a refreshing treat.

We ended the week on a sweet note—Friday was Shabbat Party! We baked fresh challah, celebrated together, and even had some cotton candy to wrap up our spectacular circus week.

We're already so excited for Week 6—it's going to be another adventure-filled week!

Dear Parents,

Baruch Hashem, Week 5 at camp was packed with fun, laughter, creativity, and unforgettable memories! Our journey Around the World continued with exciting destinations, meaningful moments, and so many smiles. Here's a peek into the incredible adventures we shared this week:

Monday we had an incredible trip to Timber Creek!

The campers enjoyed playing mini golf and having a picnic there. The competition got intense!

Tuesday was Israel day!!

The older bunks had a very busy morning preparing to run the "shuk" (carnival). They made posters, set up the booths and ran the whole show! They shined in their leadership roles and grades 1 & 2 and Shorashim had a blast with the Coke and Pepsi, marshmallow fluff, bean bag toss, guess the jelly bean and many other exciting games!

Wednesday took us to the magical city of Paris!

In baking, the girls made Eiffel Towers out of wafers and other yummy treats - they were all so creative and unique! For PAIRis - a lot of fun twin games were played - back to back drawing, Mr and Mrs and lots, and lots more!

The whole camp was on a high from our Paris themed scavenger hunt in the Promenade mall!

Thursday was a very colorful day visiting COLORado!

From everything colorful, the girls enjoyed perler beads, decorating ice cream cones, the color game, woodworking, Tye dyeing, slurpy walk and so many more activities!

We ended the week with an incredible trip to Bowling on Friday!

And of course, we came together for our beautiful Shabbos party, to end our fantastic week.

Thank you campers for an amazing week!!!

Hudy Laufer & Shayna Froom

Director's Corner with Mr. Laszlo

What a start to Session 2! We welcomed new campers into the mix, launched a fresh season of leagues, and hit the ground running with nonstop energy and excitement. It's been amazing to see returning faces reconnect and new friendships form so quickly—especially across boys from different schools, backgrounds, and cities. There's something special about seeing everyone blend into one big Camp Segula and Camp HaChaim family.

This week was packed with epic adventures: Segula took on the challenges at Activate on Tuesday, and HaChaim went full speed ahead at the bowling alley on Thursday. We even pulled off a massive Thornhill scavenger hunt along Bathurst Street that had campers racing from clue to clue with laughter and teamwork all the way through.

And this is just the beginning. The next two weeks are going to be unforgettable, featuring our huge upcoming concert with Itzik Dadya, Aryeh Kunstler, and... a very special surprise guest who we guarantee will leave the entire camp in awe.

We can't wait for what's next—this is going to be a summer to remember! Wishing everyone a great Shabbos and a meaningful Tisha b'Av.

See you on Tuesday!
